Osage Orange Toughest of Woods. One of the toughest of woods is that of the so-called Osage orange, which, however, is not an orange at all, but belongs to the nettle family. Some idea of its strength may be had from a report made not long ago by the forest service, which shows that a block 30 inches long and 2 inches by 2 inches in cross section, when bent, breaks under a stress of 13,000 pounds.

EDUCATION IS COMPULSORY IN OHIO

According to the laws of the state, education is compulsory in Ohio. Boys must remain in full time school until they are 16, unless they secure employment certificates.

Girls must remain in full time school until they are 16.

The superintendent of Schools may issue employment certificates only to Boys between 15 and 16 who have completed the sixth grade;

Girls between 16 and 18 who have completed the 7th grade, provided they have passed a satisfactory physical examination.

No one has the right to make any exceptions whatever to these age requirements.

The Board of Education may make exceptions to the School grade requirements in the case of children who are too retarded mentally to complete the required grade.

FIRST REFUGEES ARE ARRIVING

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 18.—First refugees from the flood stricken sections of Texas, reached Antonio this morning on special trains. The first train brought 175 and was followed two hours later with another bringing 200 men, women and children.

Both trains came from the Corpus Christi section and the refugees said the total loss of life there would be between 400 and 500.

Music's Effects. Children, the young and the vigorous, are more resistant or find more pleasure in noises than do the older and less healthy. Martial music to incite action, courage and animal spirits approaches that mild bedlam of the average boy. The rhapsodies of love and effete civilization require soft, soothing, gentle and calm melodies. The supersensitive ears of such quiet, far-from-bold natures are made ill by the rugged sounds of conquering heroes.—Exchange.

Little Consolation. It is little consolation for the man whose pockets have been picked off home robbed to reflect that the money taken is not worth as much as it used to be.—Indianapolis News.

Immunized Pets. Poets have generally put their pets into their poems. Gray wrote a wonderful poem on the sad event of his favorite cat being drowned in the goldfishes' bowl. Cowper chronicled the way his spaniel Dash gathered him a water lily he could not reach himself, and made a charming poem of the sad fact of his cat being shut into a drawer; whilst Burns put his collie, Lanth, into one of his finest poems, "The Two Dogs."

A Woman's Warning

Why will women continue to drag around in misery, suffering with the ailments peculiar to their sex; that drag them down to misery and despair, with backache, nervousness, the blues, derangements and irregularities, when there is a proved remedy for just such conditions?

For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming these ailments until it is now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

For Twenty Years the Friend of This Woman

Akron, Ohio—"I am fifty-one years old and going through the Change of Life, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing me lots of good. I felt run-down and weak but since taking the Vegetable Compound I am much stronger and better. I can eat and sleep, am gaining flesh and can do more work than I have for sometime. Twenty years ago your Vegetable Compound helped me during childbirth. I wish you would print this in your paper so that other women may read it. There is nothing better for the relief of suffering womanhood than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It does away with sickness and nervousness which is very often responsible for the lack of perfect harmony in the home."

O. E. BRADUTE IS APPOINTED BY PRESIDENT

O. E. Bradute, prominent Greene county, and leading farmer and cattle raiser of the state, has been honored by selection by President Wilson as one of the 22 men who will represent the general public in the national conference which is to begin in Washington October 6 to consider plans for a new relationship between employer and employee.

Mr. Bradute is named as head of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation. Twenty-two representatives to sit in the conference will be named later by organized labor, the leading agricultural associations, investment bankers and manufacturers.

The president made his list public in San Francisco Wednesday and Mr. Bradute received a telegram Wednesday night notifying him of his appointment. Although he has an engagement at Dallas, Texas, Oct. 11, to judge the cattle exhibit at the Texas state fair, Mr. Bradute said Thursday morning that he will attend the Washington conference and that he will make an effort to fill both engagements.

Three weeks ago, heads of the farm bureau federations in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and Mississippi, met in Washington for the discussion of matters affecting the farmer in connection with the attitude the government might take toward producers in respect to the high cost of living. Mr. Bradute was present at that meeting, and the men attending it had a 45-minute conference with the president concerning questions of vital interest to the farmers.

Mr. Bradute received from the president the following telegram, which is the same as sent from San Francisco yesterday to each of those appointed to take part in the conference:

"I have called a conference at Washington for October 6 for the purpose of discussing the labor situation in the country and the possibility of formulating plans for the development of a new relationship between capital and labor. I beg that you will accept appointment as one of the representatives of the general public in that conference. There will be 22 representatives of the public and an equivalent number of representatives of various bodies of organized labor and organized employers. I sincerely hope that it will be possible for you to undertake this very important service."

Sarah J. Towell Gordon, born Nov. 2, 1843, departing this life Sept. 12, 1919, aged 75 years, 10 months and 10 days. She was married to Kemp G. Gordon Dec. 22, 1864. To this union was born four children, two sons, Cassius H. and Foster, and two daughters, Minnie B. and Susie having died.

In her father's family there were five daughters and two sons. The two brothers and one sister preceded her to the better land. The three remaining sisters are, Mary Gordon, of Jamestown, and Bill Heilman, of Dayton.

When very young she united with the Church of Christ, worshipping at Grape Grove. Later in life she transferred her membership to the congregation worshipping at Gladstone, where she remained until her death. Her church life, when her health permitted her to be present at the regular meetings, was a source of great inspiration to her. When afflictions kept her from meeting with the congregation her Bible afforded her the comfort a Christian longs for. She could well say with the Apostle Paul, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course and kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which have Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me and not to me only.

Happy indeed are we if at the end of life we can say, Thy will, not mine be done, O Lord.

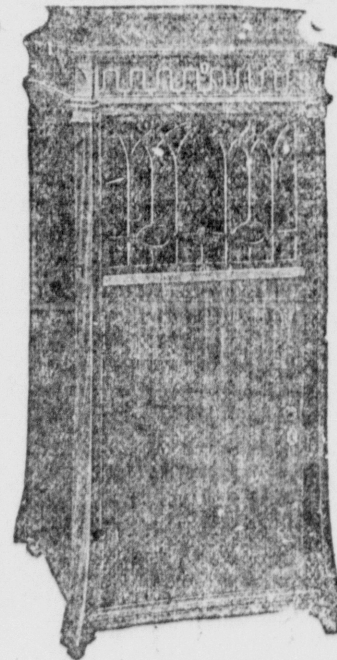

Her husband preceded her to the world beyond Feb. 28, 1906.

She leaves to mourn her departure, one daughter, Minnie Gano, of Cedarville, and one son, Cassius H. Gordon, also of Cedarville; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren besides a host of kind friends.

NAME COMMITTEES TO CONDUCT WATER WORKS CAMPAIGN

The committees in charge of the publicity campaign on the Water works question are now fully organized and are ready to carry forward a whirlwind campaign until the day of the special election, Thursday Sep. 25th. It is the purpose of the committee to present all the facts to the public in order that the voters may be thoroughly informed on this vital question before they go to the polls.

At a public meeting held some time ago a committee of three was named and instructed to name a large committee on publicity. Owing to the fact that the Soldiers' Home Coming and the Chamber of Commerce campaign held the undivided attention of the public for the past two weeks no effort was made to name this committee until early this week. The committee is as follows:

Dr. W. A. Galloway, P. H. Flynn, Kenneth Williamson, R. L. Gowdy, H. L. Sayre, H. S. LeSourd, Kenyon Riddle, Thorb Charters, Arthur Whalen, C. S. Frazer, Dr. A. D. DeHaven, Harry Fisher, S. M. McKay, C. F. Ridenour, David Cherry, Dr. W. H. Finley, Mrs. Carrie Geyer, William Rogers, Dr. N. T. Pavey, W. C. Hallisy, LeRoy Marshall, George Tiffany, Henry Binder, J. W. Santmyer, R. W. Irwin and Frank L. Smith.

At meetings held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, several small committees were named and plans for the campaign of education were outlined. The following small committees were named: Committee on meetings and speakers: P. H. Flynn, chairman, Rev. Albert Burke, C. L. Darlington, John Daly, R. E. Holmes, and Dr. H. R. Hawkins. Elections committee: T. H. Zell, chairman, Kenneth Williamson, George Stiles. Finance committee, L. Steinfelds, chairman, A. Moser, Alex Finley. Newspaper publicity committee, C. F. Ridenour, chairman, Dr. Austin Patterson and Findley Torrence.

A mass meeting will be held on Monday evening September 22 at which several water works experts will speak. One or two small meetings are also planned.

"Bedlam."

Bedlam is another example of the English fashion of telescoping words, and comes from Bethlehem. The priory of St. Mary of Bethlehem in London was converted into a hospital for the insane in 1402 and in the course of time the name was shortened to Bedlam, a word that came to be a synonym for madhouse. To open the door and let the inmates escape would be "Bedlam let loose," and frequently the phrase is used to describe intolerable clutter and racket.

Love Letters in Hymn Book.

A pair of lovers who had been forbidden to speak or write, attended the same church, and their plan was the exchange of hymn books. As the young man was an officer of the church he did this little job before service. Most delightful and satisfactory love letters could be pieced together by following certain lead-pencil marks, and in order to elude even a Sherlock Holmes of the household, the letters were made to read from the end to the beginning of the book.

RED BLOODED MEN WIN OUT

THEY ARE ALWAYS ON TOP
IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE.

It is a fact that red blooded men and women are at the top in every walk of life. Men and women with the driving force of red blood, rich in iron and phosphates do things, they get results. Red blooded women are the heads of the happiest and most contented homes, they have the will and the desire to be real companions and helpmates. Leadership and happiness is only for the men and women who are willing to keep their blood and nerves strengthened and nourished with iron and phosphates.

A prominent doctor says: "It is a crime that so many men and women lack the rich, red blood and strong steady nerves to achieve their ambitions. It is all the more so because thin, watery blood is unnecessary, as rich red blood and strong nerves are within the grasp of everyone. Phosphated Iron makes pure blood by making new blood. It gives strength, brings color to the cheeks, increases the weight and appetite, drives away the blues and those sleepless nights, steadies and renews your nervous energy, makes you feel like a live one once again." "There must be something to it. Everyone who tries it is loud in praise of Phosphated Iron, and you have got to show people these days. To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron it has been put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules. PERSONAL—OLIVES TO BLAME FOR CANTON DIN- NER TRAGEDY.

Our readers will recall the country club dinner at Canton, four weeks ago, which resulted fatally for so many guests. This article is an echo of that tragical affair.

The "Associated Ohio Dailies" is the name of a splendid newspaper organization of which I was treasurer for twenty years, until five or six years ago, when I resigned. During the most of that time Louis H. Brush, publisher of the Salem, Ohio, News,
was secretary of same association,
our relations bringing us into close connection. Because of this, when the report of the Canton dinner came, and I learned that Mr. Brush and his wife were two of the guests, and were sick, I was distressed, and wrote him.
Only yesterday I received his reply in which he says:

"After three weeks at home, I am
permitted to give attention to my mail,
and I desire, at this first opportunity,
to thank you for your letter with expressions of good cheer. Mrs. Brush and I are gradually getting back to normal, but we are extremely weak and are having some trouble with our vision; but we are assured that as soon as we regain our full strength
our eye-sight will be perfect again.
We had a pretty close call, but we have reason to be thankful that we fared so well, and will be patient until we have fully recovered."

The circumstances connected with the fatal dinner were largely published at the time, and it will be recalled that the general opinion of the expert physicians was that poison in the turkey, supposed to be cold storage turkey, was the cause of the sickness and death of so many of the guests. Now Mr. Brush has sent me a printed statement which blames the clives used at the dinner for the trouble, as follows:

"Coroner T. C. McQuate announced last night that bacteria in the olives served at the Country Club Saturday evening, Aug. 23, by Mr. and Mrs.
William L. Gahriss of Sebring, to their party of eighteen guests caused the deaths of seven members of the party including Mrs. Gahriss."

"The report was based upon an analysis made by Coroner McQuate
in connection with Dr. John Spenser of Cleveland."

"Coroner McQuate said that the cold storage turkey theory had been abandoned by specialists."

"The bacillus is a motile spore forming anaerobic bacterium, which grows at room temperature," said Dr.
McQuate.

"The toxin is readily produced in anaerobic alkaline bouillon culture.
Symptoms appear from 24 to 48 hours and sometimes longer, as one of the victims in this case went as long as 75 hours before the preliminary symptoms came on."

"The chief symptoms are due to toxic interference with the cranial nerves, dropping of eyelids, loss of speech and difficulty in swallowing
in general, a paralysis of the muscles
of the mouth and throat."

"Dr. McQuate said that every person of the party who ate olives was sick. He said the persons who did not eat olives were Col. Morgan, Dr.
Sanford, Mr. Morris and Mrs. Morris.
The other fourteen members, according to Dr. McQuate's investigation, ate olives and were sick, seven of them dying."

Although the experience of Mr.
Brush and his wife, from the effects of the dinner, was quite bad, I much rejoice that it was no worse.—J. P. C.

LOANS FOR HOMES.

Senator Calder of New York advocates the passage of a bill creating
"home loan banks" which would make $2,000,000,000 available for home construction. The reason these banks are needed is that the United States is no less than one million houses behind its needs.

This estimate is a high one, but each community knows only too well that in comparison with the facts it is probably low. There is hardly a hamlet in the country whose housing is adequate at this time, in quantity or quality. As for the great cities, the crowding has already become a monace.

Yet with the mounting cost of necessaries, thousands of families are held back by fear from taking the plunge of building for themselves.

If food and clothes and shoes have already risen so much, and with no signs of coming down, how can any family plan ahead for a home and feel at all assured that it will be able to make payments to the contractor or to the mortgage holder who finances
it?

This is where the home loan bank would be of great use. And, in all fairness, why should the farmer have all the advantages when it comes to borrowing for his farm and home?
Is not the city dweller entitled to a little assistance?

Nothing makes so thoroughly for good citizenship as the ownership of a home. It is only the floating worker, living wretchedly in shelters over whose repairs and improvements he has no control, who is unhappily enough to be a fomenter of discord.
The home-owner knows he is monarch of all he surveys. If he wants the house painted, he can, at a pinch, paint it himself. His lawn and garden show their tending in proportion to his own effort. Everything he does seems worth while.

Anything which will make it easier for the man in modest circumstances to build his own home for his own family is worth looking into.
More than a million families are virtually homeless at present, and many millions more need better housing.

CHAPTER LXX.
I was only a child, spoiled and jealous, high-spirited and reckless.
Things had happened so swiftly; so much had been if not disagreeable,
yet not quite pleasant, that I was discouraged and bitterly unhappy.

Naturally curious, my curiosity had only been whetted concerning Everett's first wife instead of satisfied.
Had he taken men in his arms and told me of her, explained that he had loved her, but now he loved me too,
I think—am not sure—that we would have been spared much sorrow.

I felt hurt and chagrined when he said I was not to receive any men callers. He had no slightest reason to think I cared for any one save him, and when a man called to inquire if I had recovered from the shock and fright of an accident, he hadn't even felt grateful for the courtesy—simply said I was not to receive him, that I could convey my messages.

Well, I would receive them, just as Leola did. I was determined to pattern my life after hers as nearly as my knowledge of her would permit, simply because I had been told that Everett loved her so passionately that he could deny her nothing, nor could

he find fault with anything she did.
At least, he did not because he feared,
if he did, she might leave him, so independent was she.

I did not know that Walter Kemp was a young man whose name had acquired an unpleasant notoriety in Hendon because of his philandering ways with women—regardless of whether they were married or not.
I do not know that it would have made any difference if I had. I thought of him only as related to the accident and treated him as I imagined Leola would have treated him. I was gra-tiously polite, as I considered it, nothing more.

The days after Everett came home
were exciting ones. He had a detective take a list of all the burglar had stolen. He had the servants all called together so the man could question them. Thomas was not quite as well and the hospital called up to inform
us. James was restless, and needed attention from Mrs. Gray. Altogether we were a disorganized household,
and I knew that Everett blamed me
as the cause. He had said:

"Had you obeyed me and remained at home, instead of attempting to go with me when I had said I would not take you, none of all this would have happened. You only took Hetty to see her friend as an excuse to do some thing you knew I would not approve.
The accident followed. If you had not bought a ticket that burglar might not have gotten away with the jewels.
And—"

"I suppose I am to blame because the burglar came at all," I pouted.
"Do be reasonable. I am blaming you for nothing you might not have avoided had you obeyed me."

"My father doesn't talk of 'obey-ing' to Mother. He did it to me because I was only a child—he thought
But if I was old enough to be married, I am old enough to do as I like as long as I do nothing wrong." I had rehearsed this little speech until I knew it by heart. And had only waited for a chance to deliver it. I was sure it would make Everett angry, but I was not prepared for what I saw in his face.

"You are incapable of judging what is right or what is wrong?"

"Thank you!" His reply stung me to add, "From what I hear you were not so severe with your first wife. You must have cared a lot more for her than you do for me. Everyone says you let her do anything she wanted to. Even that old Mrs. Harrison who was at Alice Sloan's last dinner
said you were a perfect fool. nNtsan Mgmfwyp atmfwypatpap told Alice he supposed you had married me because I resembled her. Maybe you think it is pleasant to hear such things all the time. I'd like to run away somewhere where no one lived who knew I was 'Number Two'
as he called me." In desperation I had run on, saying much more than I had intended or was wise.

"You might be called a worse name," Everett was grayly white with anger. "Go to your room at once and remain until you can at least avoid breaking all the rules of good taste."

"You'd break them too if I had been married before and people called you—'Number Two!'" I fairly ex-

LITTLE "BLIMP"

BREAKS MOORINGS

AND MAKES GETAWAY

Young "Brownie" Herr had a balloon Wednesday that would fly higher than any other boys' balloon.

The balloon was the present of one of the members of the Manufacturers' and Jobbers' association of Columbus, and little "Brownie" had taken it into the Donges' drug store where Mr. Donges filled it with gas, thereby making it fly higher than the air filled balloons the rest of the boys were playing with.

Little "Brownie" was playing with the balloon in front of the Mel Johnson barber shop when "Tiny" Smith cut the string that held the toy to mother earth.

Like a real "blimp" it sailed high over the buildings and then turned south. When last seen by a throng of interested spectators the little balloon was lost in the clouds above the O. S. and S. O. home.

Two Vital Questions

Two vital questions which are being asked by the public regarding the purchase of the plant of the Xenia Water Company by the city are, "Why is the Water Company willing to sell the property?" and "Is the property worth $260,000." The undersigned committee believes that if the public will give careful consideration to the answers given herewith to these questions that it will be fully satisfied that the city should buy the property and that it is getting it at a fair price.

Why is the Water Company Willing to Sell?

The Water Company is willing to sell its property for the sole reason that the Public Utilities law in Ohio makes it impossible for the owners to make more than a fixed profit on their investment. Since this law went into effect public utilities, owned privately, are controlled by the Utilities Commission, which removes every possibility of the owners to make more than a fixed dividend, which is little more than the return on government bonds. In the case of the Xenia Water Company the Public Utilities Commission told the company when it fixed the water rates in Xenia, "If the revenue from this rate nets you more than $20,500 on your investment this year we will cut the rate to such an extent your net income the next year will equalize your profit this year." The company from this time forward is absolutely assured of making $20,500 on its investment, but the incentive to improve the plant and reduce operating expenses is entirely removed as the water rate will be cut in exact proportion to the amount of money thus saved by the company.

In short it is simply a "cost plus" proposition. The rates are fixed on valuation plus operating expenses and there is no special reason why operating expenses should be held down as under the law the consumers and not the stockholders of the company reap the benefit.

In the case of added investment to make needed improvements the same proposition holds good. If the company should increase its investment by say $60,000 to install a new and badly needed water supply, it would have to borrow that amount of money and pay 6 or 7 per cent interest charges and then draw very little more in dividends on the added investment. It simply means taking money from one pocket and putting it into another and the water company does not care to continue the practice.

If a Public Utilities Commission did not exist in Ohio the sky would be the limit on the profits of the company and the valuation on the plant undoubtedly would be much in excess of the price asked.

If the city buys the plant there will be an incentive to make needed improvements, improve the service and cut expenses, as every dollar thus saved will return to the consumer in reduced water rates.

The above are two of the chief questions to consider in making up your mind regarding your vote on this proposition on Thursday, September 25th. It has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that hundreds of other cities are operating their water plants at much lower rates than Xenia has ever enjoyed. The above discussion of two vital questions should allay any doubt regarding that angle of the proposition.

Other questions which have been presented to the committee will be answered from day to day until the day of the election.

Signed, Newspaper Publicity Committee

C. F. RIDENOUR, Chairman.

DR. AUSTIN PATTERSON.

FINDLEY TORRENCE.

Is the Plant Worth the Price of $260,000?

Judging from the reports made by three experts after long and careful investigation the price of $260,000 asked by the Water Company for its plant is not excessive. Since 1917 when the city first approached the Water Company regarding the sale of the plant three separate investigations have been conducted by three experts, one representing the city, one the Water Company, and one the Public Utilities Commission. The average of the valuations fixed by these three experts is $286,000.

As the result of negotiations which were carried forward between the city and the company it was finally agreed that the Water Company would sell its plant for a flat price of $260,000, which is just one thousand over the Public Utilities estimate, or take an appraised price to be fixed by three experts, one to be chosen by the city, one by the company and the third by the two first named.

After consulting with Philip Burgess, consulting engineer, who had prepared the city's estimate in 1917, the city officials decided that the last price of $260,000 would undoubtedly be much under an appraised price. An appraisal made today and based on present prices of materials would be nearly $30,000 in excess of the flat price of $260,000 it is estimated. To be exact the figures are as follows:

System (pipe figured at the average of prices for past 5 years $15 ton)	$210,000.00
Stations and supply (value of present property as fixed by appraisal engineers)	49,809.00
General (10% for administration, such as engineering, legal, bonds, interest on money during construction, etc., on a $300,000.00 plant as built today)	30,000.00
A fair value on plant as of today	289,809.00
Purchase price	260,000.00

$ 29,809.03

The $260,000 will enable the Water Company to pay approximately 50 cents on the dollar for its outstanding stock, after its bonded indebtedness of $160,000 has been taken care of. The floating indebtedness of the company it is estimated is balanced by the money due the company from the city and private consumers.

During the past four years the stockholders have received no dividends. This amount is lost to them absolutely as the price of $260,000 is not sufficient to cover this loss in dividends.

Before I knew about 'Neutrone Prescription 99' I tried all kinds of tablets and liniments, but one bottle of 'Neutrone Prescription 99' helped me so much that I am never without it now, all pain and swelling is gone and I feel like doing things."

"Neutrone Prescription 99" certainly must be a wonder," the druggist replied. "We have never handled anything like it, they all say the same," 50c and $1.00 the bottle.

BONUS QUESTION TO BE SOLVED AT MEETING OF LEGION

It is expected that there will be a rousing turn-out of veterans of the late unpleasantness for the called meeting of ex-service men for the purpose of organizing a post of the American Legion here, which will be held in the Assembly Room of the Court House at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

The charter which was applied for on Labor Day when fifteen signatures were secured to the application has been received by Dr. H. C. Messenger and he has also received considerable other literature regarding the organization of a Post which will be used in the formation of the local branch.

The matter of bonus and how much wanted, is another question that has been agitating the minds of the heads of the American Legion and which will be threshed out locally at this meeting. The American Legion headquarters has advised every Post to decide what it wishes to do in the matter and size of a bonus and to so instruct the delegate who is to attend the State and National conventions in order that he may vote that way. It is expected that the bonus question will bring a number of ex-service men to the meeting.

The American Legion is at present making a great drive in Ohio for a membership of 50,000 which will be part of a national campaign to secure 1,000,000 membership which in course of time will include 3 or 4 millions. All members who join before Nov. 3 will be charter members of the organization.

HERE IS TALKING POINT FOR THE XENIA MERCHANTS

Here is a talking point for home trade for local business men.

A young lady from Columbus has said that she buys almost all of her clothes here because she can get them cheaper.

As illustration a suit that she priced in Columbus was $115. The same suit was on display in a local store at about half that price.

She claims that it pays to make the trip owing to the saving in prices.

"Deal at home," should be a matter of city pride but when it affects the pocketbook to this extent, there should be no doubt as to the advisability of this slogan.

DON'T SPOIL YOUR CLOTHES.

That is why they use Red Cross Ball Blue. All leading grocers 5 cents.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. You have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pollen, Carpenter, 205 1/2 Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

Piano Playing.
No instrument has such a vast literature, as rich and voluminous, as the piano, and more people are teaching and studying it than any other instrument. The reason that, in spite of its popularity, there are only few who play it well and artistically is that the majority of people consider piano playing more as a means of amusement and a pleasant diversion than as a medium with which it is possible to produce the deepest feelings and the highest in art.

PRESIDENT IS OPPOSED TO THE POLICE UNION

Washington, Sept. 18.—That President Wilson is opposed to the unionization of police was the interpretation placed by District Commissioner Louis Brownlow upon a telegram received by him from the chief executive and read to the district committee of the senate today.

The telegram follows:
"I hope that you understood my brief telegram of the other day. I am quite willing that you should tell the senate committee that my position in my conversation with you was exactly the same as I have expressed recently in speeches here in the West and of course I am desirous as you are of dealing with the police force in the most just and generous way but that I think that any association of the police force of the capital city, or any great city, whose object is to bring pressure upon the public or the community such as will endanger the public peace or embarrass the maintenance of order should in no case be countenanced or permitted."
(Signed) "Woodrow Wilson."

Commissioner Brownlow told the committee that the telegram came in response to a request made to the president that he state his position on the affiliation of the police union of Washington with the American Federation of Labor.

The telegram referred to by the president urged the commissioners to defer until after the president's labor conference there mandate that the police must either quit the union or the force.

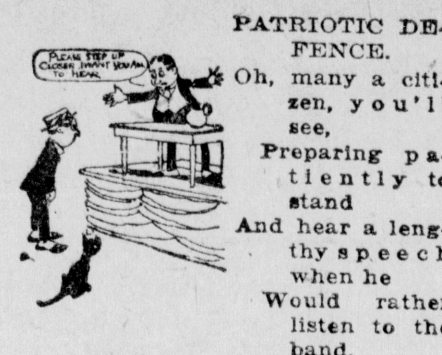

WATER WORKS QUESTION BOX

Editor Gazette.—There is just one thing I would like to ask in reference to the proposed purchase of the city Water Works plant. Is it true, as has been stated, that if the city purchases this plant it will continue to conduct it as the company is now conducting it, and continue to squirt Chlorine solution into the water to kill the typhoid germs? Personally, I don't see any sense in taking over the plant if the city is going to give us no better water than the private corporation, has given us.

PRO BONO PUBLICA.
Editor's Note.—Pro Bono Publica is right. There would be no sense in the city purchasing the plant to continue to conduct it as it has been conducted in the past.

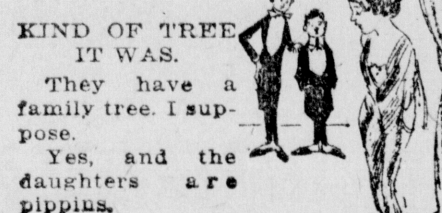

The city's fundamental purpose in purchasing the plant is to utilize a new source of supply, and give us pure water from a new source by a filtered system, instead of using the Chlorine plant.

The second purpose is to save the taxpayers the money they now have to spend for water for fire protection. By purchasing the plant and eliminating the charge to the city, which the State Public Utilities Commission has allowed on the grounds that stockholders of the plant are entitled to 8 per cent dividends on their investment, the city will save $15,000 a year, which it is now compelled to pay in order to protect our lives and property against destruction by fire.

PATRIOTIC DEFENSE.

Preparing patiently to stand
And hear a lengthy speech
When he would rather

XENIANS TO HAVE CHANGE TO FLY HIGH

Local aeronautical enthusiasts who have watched with envy the delightful air trips of aviators from the Wright field will get a chance to enjoy the sensations of an air ride themselves on Saturday, Sept. 20, when Lieut. Don Campbell will visit this city.

Lieutenant Campbell represents the Rainbow Aviation Company and will be here all day Saturday landing and making trips from Roberts Field. Fifteen minute trips will be made and anybody anxious to see Xenia from the clouds will be given opportunity for a nominal charge.

Lieutenant Campbell is a government flyer and is safe and sane in his manipulation of the "stick." He will not demonstrate any flying stunts unless requested by his passenger. It is expected that many Xenians will take advantage of this opportunity to go joy riding in the clouds.

OYSTER RAISING IN HOLLAND

Highly Scientific Methods Employed in That Country Have Been Remarkably Successful.

In the industry represented by oyster cultivation, Holland is the most systematic in its operations and employs more elaborate methods than any other country in the world. The numerous sounds that indent the coast of Holland, particularly in the region of the River Scheldt, afford excellent facilities for the propagation of the oyster and enable the country to conduct the most successful oyster industry in Europe. Public dredging is not permitted, as the result of that system was the threatened exhaustion of the fisheries, and the beds have been carefully surveyed and specific tracts are leased to individuals and companies, who are thus enabled to conduct the propagation of the oyster in a systematic manner that insures the best results from the territory available. Many growers lease several tracts in different localities, and adapted to different purposes, which facilitates the various operations, as the oysters can be shifted from one place to another, according to the season and the stage of development. A few of the oystermen plant shells on the banks, as is done in many places in this country, but the largest and most successful propagators are equipped with their own tanks and ponds, located in convenient shallow bays, in which they carry on the culture.

Carillon.

This is the name given to a set of bells arranged in such a way as to be capable of giving forth a regular tune, or melody. A much greater number of bells is required for a Carillon than is hung for a general peal of bells. A large peal of bells consists of 10 or 12, while a Carillon may consist of as many as 30 or 40.

Cultivate Self-Confidence.

Dress and self-confidence go hand in hand. Self-confidence is the motive power that turns the wheels of success. Self-confidence is the knowledge that you can and will do whatever you happen to undertake. If you are deficient in self-confidence, you cannot expect to inspire it in others.

MRS. JAMES AT REST

The funeral of Mrs. Mary L. James, wife of Mr. T. C. James, was held, last Saturday afternoon September 13, with appropriate services at the Reformed Church of which the deceased was a member. Rev. Albert Read conducted the service and drew attention to the things that Jesus would say and do in the house of bereavement basing his thoughts on John 11:25-26; he also spoke of the yearning prayers and favorite hymns of the deceased in the last few weeks of her earthly life and also of the domestic felicity in her home-life. There was a wealth of flowers from very many of her large circle of friends. Her body was tenderly and sorrowfully borne to the grave by her sons and relatives. Paul James, Ralph James, Byrd James, Lester J. Buell, Walter Lawrence and C. B. Harner.

Nerv-Worth and Nerv-Worth
Laxative Tablets Do Wonderful Team Work.

These two famous family medicines, united their forces with happy results for those whose bowels and liver are connected with bowel and liver troubles. Nerv-Worth, the liquid generally masters derangements of the liver and bowels, but in some cases these are too deep rooted to surrender quickly and then the Tablets, taken in connection with the liquid do wonderful work. They are especially valuable in cleansing the bowels for those whose habits of constipation do not readily yield to the laxative properties of Nerv-Worth, the liquid. A bottle of Nerv-Worth and a 25c box of the Tablets form a combination without equal in overcoming ills of the nerves, stomach, bowels and liver. Your dollar back at Sayre & Hemphill's, Xenia, if this famous family tonic does not benefit you.

Relieves After Effects of Breaks and Sprains

Recovery from fractures and sprains is slow enough at best, but there is no use to be laid up any longer than absolutely necessary. Massage the injured part gently with Houstonia daily. Aching and soreness will quickly go.

The case of E. E. Downing, who lives on Walnut St., in Waverly O., is one of the many proofs of what Houstonia will do. Says Mr. Downing "Some time ago, I had the misfortune to break my leg. I tried several remedies without results, until I began using Houstonia Liniment, and am glad to testify that the results were beyond my expectations."

On rheumatic joints and swellings too, Houstonia has an almost magical effect. Better get a bottle from your druggist and keep it handy. $1.00—half size 50c, trial size, 25c. Clean Up Poison
Soaked Kidneys
Advises Dr Carey

Thousands Die Every Year Because They Allow Poisonous Deposits to Accumulate in Kidneys.

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts, says Dr. Carey, they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.
For 40 years I have been prescribing Marshroot for kidney and bladder diseases and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.
Beware of kidney disease thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.
If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffing under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, headache or side-ache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away.
It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon.
IMPORTANT—Dr. Daniel G. Carey has been a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription "Marshroot" has cured thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. It is not a patent medicine and is only sold through drug stores in order to accommodate his patients. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you—adv.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION
HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE
OVER RHEUMATISM

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenbur Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.
Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.
He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.
With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.
He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill has been appointed agent for Allenbur in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.
